

"How to" Make Fair Entries

Anyone in Putnam County can enter things in the Putnam County Fair!

A Fair Book – Event and Entries Schedule will be available in early May at 50 locations around Putnam and adjoining counties.

Over $100,000 offered in prizes and premiums for fair entries.

Until the Fair Book is available you can use the following list of areas where entries will be taken to think about what you might want to enter in the fair --

- Flowers and Garden Products – cut flowers, house plants, etc.
- Crafts – wood, leather, wreaths, jewelry, Christmas decoration, etc.
- Baking – breads, cakes, pies, cookies, candies, etc. and, canned goods – jams, jellies, preserves, pickles, tomatoes, beans, relish, etc.
- 4-H Projects – poster, record books, project books; educational displays; etc.
- Photography – landscape, waterscape, people, pets, wildlife, insects, etc.
- Sewing – apron, skirt, dress, shorts, pants, needlepoint, costume, etc.
- Hobby – model kit, Lego model, wood article, leaves or insect collections, pencil drawing, drawing any medium, photography, etc.
- Garden and Field Crops – corn, wheat, popcorn, pumpkins, squash, cucumbers, tomatoes, bell peppers, hay, peanuts, many vegetables and fruits, etc.

Rules for Making Entries

All entries must have an exhibitor number with barcode.

BARCODES available 7:30am - 11:30am, Saturday August 6, 2022 or mail entry form in advance of the fair and your barcodes will be waiting for you at the fair.

Send the entry form to Putnam County Fair, Attn: Patti Clark, P.O. Box 1001, Cookeville, TN 38503.

Entry forms being mailed must be postmarked no later than ten days before the fair opens to assure, we receive it in time to create your barcodes. After that date entry forms may be dropped off at the fair office.

ENTRIES accepted 8:00am - 12:00 noon, Saturday August 6, 2022 at the fairgrounds.

Each year people show up at the window after 11:30a and they are disappointed when we tell them entries are closed if they don't already have their barcodes. Please don't let that happen to you - plan and come early to bring your entries.

There will be a special entrance for those bringing entries to the fair on Saturday. Watch for signs all over the fairgrounds directing you to the Entry Gate. We will have people to assist you when you arrive thru the Entry Gate.

Entries must be removed on Sunday, August 14, 2022, between 1pm and 2:30p. Entries not picked up on Sunday will be discarded after noon on Monday, August 15.

Disclaimer: The Putnam County Fair Board will have photographers on the grounds each day of the fair taking pictures to use in marketing materials, on its website, and in next year's fair book. Anyone who enters an item in the fair or just attends the fair, understands and agrees that the Fair Board may use any photos taken of fair activities as noted here without further permissions.

Competition is open to Putnam County residents and 4-H members in Putnam County, unless stated otherwise. All livestock and horse shows are open to anyone except the Putnam County Horse Show.

Questions about fair entries may be directed to Kay Sliger at 931-432-4440; or Adonna Pryor at 931-537-3931 or Email: info@putnamcountyfair.org.
